Tribal Programmes in Doordarshan and All India Radio

634. SHRI SURENDRA SINGH THAKUR: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have any definite programme to telecast or broadcast tribal programmes on their life, culture and traditions, and their exploitation to educate the masses of their hard realities in order to draw maximum social respect for them;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI AJIT PANJA): (a) to (c) Both AIR and Doordarshan regularly broadcast/telecast programmes on tribals highlighting their life, culture and traditions and the measures introduced by Government for their welfare.

A programme called 'Bharat Bharati', which includes programmes on tribals, is put out by a number of AIR stations with a view to acquainting listners of one region about the life and culture of the people of other regions. The music of Andaman and Nicobar Islands and that of Mizoram and Meghalaya were broadcast on the National Programme of Regional and Light Music on 5-9-85 and 4-9-86. The music of Bustar and Chattisgarh is scheduled for broadcast in November, 1987. Likewise, Doordarshan Kendras located in the tribal belts like Ranchi, Cuttack, Rajkot, Gorakhpur, Raipur etc., have produced special programmes on tribal life.

Priority has been accorded by Doordarshan in the Seventh Plan for the coverage of hilly and tribal and remote areas in the country. All tribal districts in the country are expected to be covered wholly or partially with the implementation of the Seventh Plan.
